BUTTON FILES FOR RE-ELECTION

State Representative Angie Chen Button today filed her papers to be the Republican nominee for in Texas House District 112 in Dallas County.

Button was recently ranked as the 32nd most conservative member of the Texas House and earned a series of awards for her fiscally responsible voting record.

Button recently released a list of more than 200 endorsing supporters. The list includes elected state officials including over two-thirds of her fellow Republican House members, past and current local city council members, regional business leaders such as Ebby Halliday Acers and Roger Staubach, education leaders such as Dr. Curtis Culwell and Dr. Carolyn Bukhair, former Dallas County Republican Chair Bob Driegert, and other Republican leaders. Thousands more local residents have given Button their support as her campaign walks door-to-door to meet voters.

“There is so much left to be done in the upcoming legislature,” said Button. “While Texas leads the nation in categories like economic strength and job creation, we are under attack from the Obama administration in areas like excessive new regulation against energy and for the troubled Obamacare program. I look forward to continuing to fight on behalf of Texans.”
